

Supplementary Material Figure 7. Redundancy analysis of environmental variables and taxonomic composition for February (a) and September (b). Community data is square root transformed. DistLM tables present only significant environmental variables for each month.